

Level 5 Commissioning for Wellbeing for people with Learning Disabilities & Autism

Learning outcomes

- The role of the commissioner for wellbeing
- The commissioning cycle
- Outcomes-focused commissioning
- Professional development for effective commissioning.

This qualification focuses on the significance for commissioners of maintaining a focus on people and the importance of consultation and coproduction at every the commissioning cycle

Pilot 2020

- When support for people with a learning disability is commissioned well, it can make a significant difference to someone's life chances. That's why having a good understanding of people with a learning disability is a key part of the skill set of everyone with a role for commissioners.

Bespoke Consultancy & Education Ltd

'I think it's very important as commissioners to understand the challenges all of us are facing so that we can coordinate them'

'All commissioners should do this course and it should be fundamental to every aspect to a commissioners world'

'it's about making sure we've got the right support in the right place at the right time, and it's being managed correctly'

“The qualification is challenging and pushes you – its not easy but the gains are immeasurable! “

“I have learnt what co-production means (really) and the impact it can have on an individual, their family, their community and the Service Provider”

“Wellbeing needs to be at the heart of commissioning and this course explores the benefits that wellbeing has for us all”

What next.....

- For transformation of services to be achieved and care and support to be developed in true co-production, commissioning practices need to push the boundaries by being creative and invest in possibilities.
- Leaders and influencers need to understand, and advocate, the importance of being able to commission services around the individual by taking into consideration practices that enable flexibility, innovation and discovery.

Thank you

<https://www.skillsforcare.org.uk/Learning-development/qualifications/commissioning-for-wellbeing.aspx>

Christiana.evans@skillsforcare.org.uk

